

Confessions of Faith

Romans 10:9-10 tells us that if we confess with our mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in our heart that God raised Him from the dead, we will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. The word, confess, means to speak the same thing as another, to agree with, to declare. The word for saved is sozo and means to rescue from danger or destruction, to heal, to protect, to preserve, to save. The word salvation is soteris and means deliverance, preservation, soundness, prosperity, well-being, salvation. We need to agree with God's Word and speak it out of our mouth for spiritual and physical wholeness in our body, soul, and spirit.

I know the plans that You have for me Father God, they are to prosper (shalom) me, to make me whole, to give me peace, to give me health, and for my total well being; they are not plans to harm me, but plans to give me a hope and a future. (Jeremiah 29:11) I confess Jesus as Lord and Savior of my life, my Healer, my Deliverer, my Rescuer, my Preserver, my Protector, my Shepherd, my Everything.

Father, I humble myself before You. I submit myself to You, to Jesus Christ my Lord, to the Holy Spirit, and to Your Word. I resist the devil and he will flee from me, (James 4:6-8)

Father, Your Word says that You are not a man that you should lie, and what you say you will do. (Numbers 23:19)

I thank You that You watch over Your Word to perform it, and it does not return to You void, but accomplishes what You desire, and achieves the purpose for which You sent it. (Jeremiah 1: 12, Isaiah 55:11)

I thank You that Your Word performs its work in me because I believe. (1Thess. 2:13)

You have written Your Word on my heart and placed it in my mind. (Hebrews 8:10)

Your Words are life to me and health to all my flesh. (Proverbs 4:22)

Your Word is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. (Hebrews 4: 12)

I overcome satan by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of my testimony, and I do not love my life to the death. (Revelation 12:11)

I declare that the precious holy blood of the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ, covers me. The words of my mouth agree with the Word of God which says: By His stripes I was healed. (1 Peter 2:24)

Jesus bore my sickness, my disease, my weakness, and carried away my pain. The chastisement for my peace (shalom – my wholeness, my health, my well-being, my tranquility, my prosperity) was upon Him (Isaiah 53:4-5)

You will keep me in perfect peace (shalom shalom – wholeness, health, well-being, tranquility, prosperity) as my mind is stayed on You, because I trust in You. (Isa. 26:3)

We believe these confessions will bless your life. Please use them and make copies for others who need to be declaring the Word of God over their lives. The Lord led us to write these down to help those who need healing, but as you see, they apply to many areas of our Christian life. We also want to encourage you to continue to take other scriptures in the Word of God and declare them out of your mouth, for yourself and for others.
